ISRAEL

It'is not that good
At the moment it'is a terrorist government, just like Hamas

So, how was Israel created? Well, after the defeat of the Ottoman empire, the Levant/Palestine/Holy-Land was put in charge of the UK. And originally, the plan was to have the Levant be internationally managed because of it's major importance to several religious groups. So what happened? Well, for one reason or another, the UK decided to give the land to The Jews in general... why?? The theories are countless

-Zionist Lobbying in Britain(this one is actually confirmed)

-Because they did'not want them there

-To ingratiate jews in the US

-To ingratiatie russian revolutionists

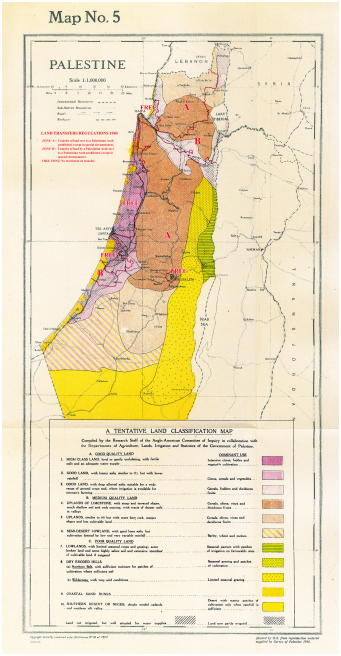
-Sympathy for the Jews

It is true that the Jews were disliked, quite a lot. And reasons may vary. I have a friend that says that it'is because Jews were really good at banking and everyone got jealous of them. I have another friend that said Jews used greedy banking systems that only benefited themselves and stole from the rest of the population. So which one is true???? BOTH PROBABLY that tends to be the case.

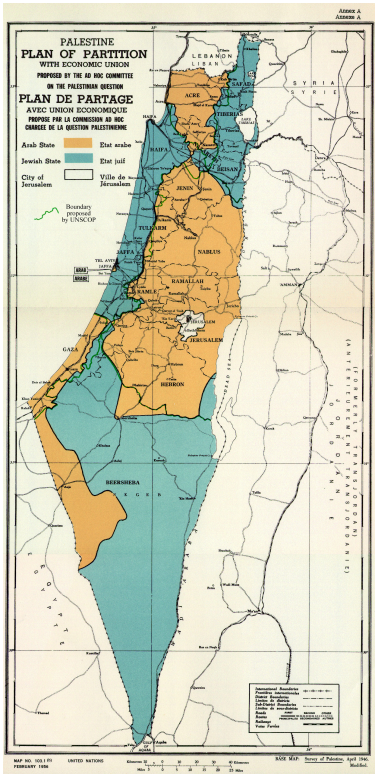
So no one wants the Jews, and they decide that shoving them somewhere and not dealing with them anymore is a great idea. And they decide to shove them into PALESTINE.

PROBLEM NUMBER 1, Establishment

Palestine contains people at this very moment. People from the Ottoman empire, and they do'not like the idea of giving their land to the Jews. So upon hearing the Balfour declaration, they get kinda mad.



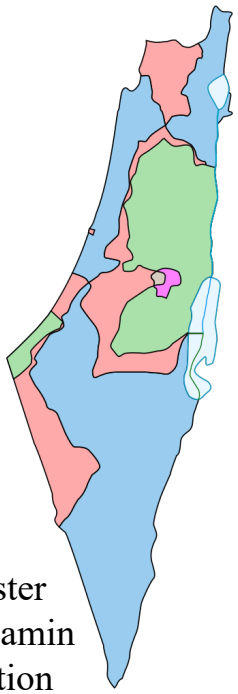
The Ottomans or how they would be later known, Palestinians were not happy about this and they opposed it in every opportunity they got. Like the white papers and the UN Partition Plan and all.



Unfortunately even though they never agreed to this, they do'not have any say in the matter so the UK can do whatever it wants, and if they want to inject 630,000 Jews and kick out 700,000 Palestinians then unfortunately they can actually do that. And this is the first thing I do'not like about Israel, it's entire establishment was unethical. It should'not be there in the first place. And that'is the argument that terrorist organisations use to justify being aggressive.

But the reality is that Israel is already here, and getting rid of it only involved more violence, loss, and pain, and so the terrorist organisations are stupid for still fighting instead of just letting them be.

Since the Palestinians NEVER agreed to surrender their land to the Jews, immediately after their independance, they teamed up with other Arab states to try to take their land back, but they were unsuccessfull. As a result, Israel decided to occupy several territories of the UN recognised Palestine. And today on the modern day this land is no longer internationally recognised as Palestine. And Acre got destroyed too.



They never gave the land back because they needed the military advantage in order to avoid getting attacked again by the Palestinians. But so far this is all reasonable.

PROBLEM 2, Netanyahu

So the Oslo accords (basically peace accords) were signed once, by Israeli Prime Minister Yitzak Rabin. But right wing Israel did'not like that, so they assasinated him. And Benjamin Netanyahu (who is the current prime minister of Israel) openly celebrated his assasination by holding a mock funeral of him with a fake casket. So I also do'not like Netanyahu's attitude, because I get the feeling that he does'not want peace with Palestine, he wants them completely erradicated.

PROBLEM 3, Settlements

So i actually do'not think that the UN Borders are bad, I think they cooked. But Israel simply did not respect those borders. They saw some land in palestine that was unoccupied, and they simply took it. Nowadays the amount of settlements are crazy, and they are definately illegal. They are definately the exact definition of what the UN considers illegal. To move in your population to a country that you are occupying. You know why it'is illegal? Because you can actually conquer countries like this, and we are supposed to be past this era. But it seems to me like Israel is genuinely just trying to conquer Palestine.

PROBLEM 4, Planning (theoretical)

So Israel made a series of deliberate choices to keep Hamas in power, such as allowing Quatar to fund Hamas, that'is the best known one. The theory is that Israel keeps Hamas in power so that they can keep not taking them seriously and keep doing more settlements until they own the land. How far is this theory from the truth? I do'not know.

Now the next page will be a collection of things Israel or the IDF or just some random Israelis have done. The purpose of this is to destroy the narrative that only the Arabs are the bad terrorist people here, I believe there is good in both sides, but unfortunately there is bad, REALLY BAD, on both sides aswell.

We are talking rape, torture, killing children, all of that stuff, both sides have done it, and it'is despicable. However we already know that the terrorist organisations do this kinda shit, but I do'not think enouph people are aware that the IDF and Israel in general is also guilty of unethical operations. That being said let'us begin.

1) Hind Rami Iyad Rajab

Awwwwww, look at that cute little graduate, ready to conquer the world with her well earned academic expertise.

It would be a shame if on the 29nth of January 2024 her family were to be fleeing from Gaza and they just happened to get targetted by the IDF and her uncle and 3 cousins were immediately killed. And then they contacted the Palestinian Red Crescent Society for medical help. And it would be even more of a shame if Rajab and the Paramedics were found dead in the scene later on.

Actually it IS a shame, because obviously in case you have'not caught on, all of that absolutely happened And this is obviously one of many cases. This one just happened to blow up because it involved Hind Rajab basically begging for her life through phone for 3 hours, and because Paramedics were killed.

2) Charlie Kirk

Look, I do'not necesairly like the individual, but I think Israel murdered him. Because his name, his supposed assasin's name, his assasin's house directions, the hospital he went to. Everything was googled in israel before. It'is a little too suspicious. There is also the exploding microphone theory, which one of my friends believes in, but I would'not take it that far.

3) Killing Journalists

There is like a massive list of journalists that were killed. And that is kind of a warcrime, specially when they very clearly labeled as journalists in their vests and all

4) Indescriminate Bombing

So they say that they attack precise Hamas bases, but then you see videos of Gaza being completely Plateued, and you have to wonder, what the fuck are you talking about??? Hamas has been the governor of Gaza for like 2 decades now. They have infrastructure everywhere, they own the hospitals, is that still an excuse to bomb a hospital with actual patients? Not really in my opinion.

I mean, if you just look at this video => https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pl1jiFgot5o

How is this "targeted bombing" like, yeah, you hit the target, assuming you were aiming at just about every fexkin building in Fatah.

5) Blocking Humanitarian Aid

This is also a warcrime. And they do it really often. And you might say that they need to provide aid through the proper Israeli Channels. And then you get another thing that happens pretty often

6) Shooting at people who go after aid

Ever since the aid distribution was taken over by the US and Israel, there has been a very consistent pattern of Palestinians getting shot when trying to enter Aid distribution sites. According to the UN, 1,373 Palestinians were killed while trying to get aid in July of 2025, and theses incidents were daily.

https://www.haaretz.com/israel-news/2025-06-27/ty-article-magazine/.premium/idf-soldiers-ordered-to-shoot-deliberately-at-unarmed-gazans-waiting-for-humanitarian-aid/00000197-ad8e-de01-a39f-ffbe33780000

According to the article above, one IDF officer confessed that they were ordered to shoot, it was'not just crossfire, or like, a mistake, they just shot them for some reason.

7) Death Penalty for Terrorists Law, 62–48

So this law basically permits Israel to kill anyone who has attempted to kill any soldiers with the intent of negating the existance of Israel. I am already against the death penalty, but this is death penalty specifically targetted at the opposition. If an IDF soldier were to wrongfully kill an innocent civilian, they would not be persecuted in the same way as if a Palestine soldier were to do the same thing

I already do'not believe killers should be killed, so this is just icing on the cake, because this law just basically allows you to kill all the war prisioners and that'is just cruel.
